

Weekly Peek

Ms. Blaschko's
Bright Stars 4 year olds
May 1, 2012

FYI:

This week was a short week because of conferences. Although it was short we still did a lot. We learned how to spell and sound out the word CAT, we made May Day baskets and gave them to the important people in the school! Everyone one also received a May Day basket from a mystery person!!! I wonder who that was from?!?!?!?

Upcoming Dates:

Wednesday, May 2- May 4th – Conferences
Thursday, May 17 – Pajama/fun Day
Friday, May 18 – Spring Concert
Friday, May 25 – Last Day of School

Conferences:

Conferences are this week Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. See you then!!

Spring Concert:

Attached is the music for our Spring concert. We have been working hard on these. Please help us memorize the lyrics by practicing and repeating the words with your child. Thanks!

Next Week's Theme: Community Helpers

Next week we are going to learn about community helpers. We will learn what they do for us and how we can thank them.

This Week's Theme: Farm Animals

Next week we will learn about farm animals. We will learn what animals live on a farm, what those animals give us such as milk, cheese, and ice cream. We will also have a special visitor coming in on Thursday!

Letter Of The Week: Review

We have finished our letters of the alphabet. We will continue to review our letters and their sounds. We are also going to start putting letter together to begin writing words.

Color Of The Month: Rainbow

Next week May begins. We have covered many of the basic colors in our world. This month we will celebrate all the colors of our world.

Shape of The Week: Star

The shape of the week this week is the Star. See how many stars you can find around the house. Also, see how many stars you can count in the night sky!
